COMMUNITY UPDATE

Dear Titan Family,

On behalf of the Division of Student Affairs at California State University, Fullerton, I want to extend my deepest gratitude for your continued partnership and commitment to the university and College Access and Career Pathways.

Cal State Fullerton has long been recognized for its exceptional academic offerings and dedication to student success, with over 42,000+ students pursuing degrees across 110 programs. As a national leader in enrolling and graduating underrepresented students, our university thrives because of the dedicated efforts of teams like College Access and Career Pathways. This team within the Division of Student Affairs is more than just a resource – it’s a transformative pipeline that ensures students are supported at every stage of their journey, from recruitment and admissions to community engagement and career development.

The publication you are about to read highlights some of our recent achievements, but it is also an invitation. We hope the stories and data we share will inspire future collaborations, new initiatives, and continued momentum in advancing college access and career readiness. Together, we can make a profound difference for Titans, helping them realize their potential and achieve careers that lead to social mobility and meaningful change.

Once again, thank you for your unwavering support and commitment to our students. Your partnership is vital in empowering the next generation of leaders, and we are grateful for the generosity and care you show toward Cal State Fullerton and our community.

Sincerely,

David Forgues, Ph.D.

CENTER FOR EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

The Center for Educational Partnerships (CEP) is dedicated to supporting all students, especially those from low-income, first-generation, and underrepresented backgrounds, to have access to post-secondary education despite systemic, economic, or social barriers. CEP focuses on serving high-need communities in the CSUF service area.

HIGHLIGHTS AND MILESTONES

Cal State Fullerton GEAR UP Celebrates 25 Years of Success!

Since 1999, CSUF GEAR UP has secured over $42.2 million in federal funding to provide services and support to more than 10,000 students and families. Through collaborations with key stakeholders, CSUF GEAR UP works to provide students from low-income backgrounds with the support, skills, and resources needed to achieve their educational and career goals, driving innovation and strengthening student success throughout the educational pipeline.

Center for Educational Partnerships' 5-Year Anniversary!

The Center for Educational Partnerships' 5-Year Anniversary Celebration marks a significant milestone in our ongoing commitment to helping students reach their full potential. This celebration reminds us of our collaborative efforts with community and campus partners to provide the support and resources necessary for student success.

OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS

This report highlights admissions, enrollment and yield data for first-time freshmen and undergraduate transfer students enrolling in Fall 2024. Compared to Fall 2023, we saw a steady increase in enrollment for undergraduate transfers (Fall 2023 transfer enrollment: 4,312) and first-time freshmen enrollment saw a very slight decrease (Fall 2023 freshmen enrollment: 7,070).

FALL 2024 TOTAL

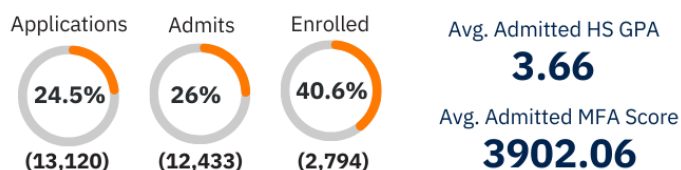

Due to campus impaction, a local area is defined for admissions purposes. Local area First-Time First Year students are admitted at a lower Multi-Factor Admission Score (MFAS) than non-local applicants. The CSUF local area includes all high schools in Orange County, as well as the Chino, Corona/Norco, Walnut, Whittier, and Alford school districts.

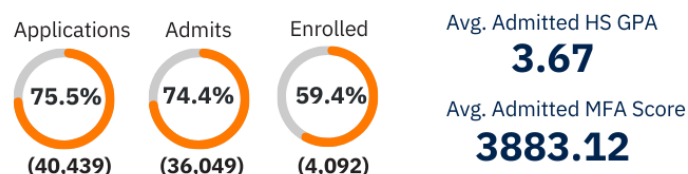

CSUF has defined the local admission area for transfer students as all community colleges in Orange County. Students who attend more than one institution are classified based on where the majority of their units were completed. Priority admission preference is given to local area transfers for all majors.

BASIC NEEDS SERVICES

Basic Needs Services (BNS) connects students who experience an unforeseen hardship that results in food, housing, and/or financial insecurity to available on or off-campus resources. Students meet with staff to discuss their circumstances and determine which resources and services may best meet their needs.

DATA FOR 2023-2024

PROGRAMS AND TRAININGS FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF

- Students: BNS offers several financial literacy and CalFresh programs and a Basic Needs Ambassador Seminar for students who want to help peers who disclose basic needs insecurities.
- Faculty and Staff: BNS offers Basic Needs Ambassador Trainings and Titan Bites Administrator Trainings.
 - The Basic Needs Ambassador Seminar and Training provides information about basic needs insecurities, how to empathetically support students with care and appropriate boundaries, and information about campus resources.
 - The Titan Bites Administrator Training is for full-time faculty and staff to issue Titan Bites alerts, which sends push notifications to students about left-over food after a campus catered event.

2023-2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

Hired Third Assistant Director and Basic Needs Center Coordinator

Increased professional staffing to meet the continued increase in basic needs requests and center utilization.

Refreshed Financial Literacy programs and created Financial Wellness Peer Mentors program

Peer Mentors provide 30-minute mentoring sessions that can focus on a wide range of financial literacy topics based on the student's needs

Partnership with Housing and Residential Engagement, the Office Financial Aid, and Student Business Services

BNS partnered with Housing and Residential Engagement, the Office Financial Aid, and Student Business Services to provide Basic Needs Housing Grants to residential students to offset on-campus housing costs.

80 students received the Basic Needs Housing Grant totaling $155,315

SERVICES PROVIDED:

- Food assistance through Titan Dining Hall donated meals, ASC Guest Cards, CalFresh enrollment, Titan Bites, and referrals to full-service pantries.
- Temporary Housing for up to three weeks in an on-campus apartment while students secure long-term, stable housing and includes Titan Dining Hall meals and a temporary parking permit.
- Financial assistance through Basic Needs Grants for students who experience an unforeseen financial hardship and seek assistance with unpaid basic needs expenses.
- Access to up to 5 full-sized hygiene products per month and up to 6 items of gently worn professional attire per month to support their career development.

STUDENT LIFE AND LEADERSHIP

The purpose of the Student Life and Leadership department is to empower students through involvement, leadership, and co-curricular learning opportunities to enhance their Titan Experience at CSUF.

DISCOVERFEST

PROGRAMS AND TRAININGS

Student Life and Leadership (SLL) aims to provide students with leadership skills related to their involvement and will cultivate a Titan Experience that best meets their expectations. This is done through intentional programming within Student Organizations, Sports Clubs, Fraternity and Sorority Life, Leadership Programs, Community Service Opportunities, Academic Inter-Club Councils and Campus Activities.

FRATERNITY AND SORORITY LIFE

We have four councils that govern the fraternities and sororities at CSUF

- Interfraternity Council that oversees 3 active IFC organizations
- Panhellenic Council that oversees 6 active PHC organizations
- Multicultural Greek Council that oversees 6 active MGC organizations
- National Pan-Hellenic Greek Council that oversees 2 active NPHC organizations

$10,268.00
Was raised from Coin Wars, Panda Express Fundraiser, and CSUF's Giving Link. This donation was given to CSUF's Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) Children's Center. The funds assisted the center in building a state-of-the-art shade structure on their playground so that children can enjoy a shaded outdoor space during the hot summer months.
160
FSL students and FSL Alumni attended our Fraternity and Sorority Life Honors Banquet. This event recognizes the accomplishments our student leaders completed in Spring 2023 and Fall 2023. This year, we received 89 applications across our 12 award categories. From these 89 applications, we awarded 21 recipients.

Celebration: All sports club members are invited to a banquet to recognize them for their accomplishments and highlights from their year.

ACADEMIC INTER-CLUB COUNCILS

- The Academic Inter-Club Councils (ICCs) serve as a dedicated funding council for registered student organizations across our eight Colleges. The mission of the ICCs is to empower both undergraduate and graduate students by providing financial support for activities directly related to their academic pursuits, including research presentations, or attending conferences. The ICCs also provides funding to registered student organizations to help fund programming and event initiatives within the clubs.
- The Academic ICCs are run entirely by student representatives from diverse college clubs and organizations. The ICCs meet weekly or bi-weekly to review and approve funding proposals, ensuring that our community thrives in education, research, public service, and professional development.

CARE SERVICES

The primary focus of Care Services is to support student well-being, promote academic success, and enrich the Titan experience. We provide non-clinical case management to students, consult with faculty and staff on student distress and well-being concerns, respond to referrals, and facilitate trainings and presentations. Staff place an emphasis on individualized attention to help students feel understood and empowered to make informed decisions about their Titan experience.

Residents

2,200
BED SPACES

3 different types of housing options: Residence Halls, Suites, and Apartments

- CSUF does not have a live-on requirement and instead provides housing on a first eligible basis
- Bed spaces available for first-years to graduate students

SPECIFIC INFORMATION

- There are 2,200 bed spaces for first-years to graduate students living on-campus
- Residence Halls are primarily designed for first-year students
- Suites are primarily designed for continuing students
- Apartments are primarily designed for senior and graduate students
- All residents living on-campus are required to have a meal plan
- The Residence Halls close for Winter Break, while our Suites and Apartments stay operational during all break periods
- Our housing application process is separate from applying to CSU Fullerton and opens around April each year. It is recommended that students look at the CSUF Housing website to learn more about specific dates and information
- We recommend students to apply early and fully read through the Housing application before submitting
- CSUF does not have a live-on requirement and does not guarantee housing to students. Students are given a space in Housing on a first eligible, first serve basis
- Housing fees are separate from tuition. Financial aid can cover Housing fees if there is remaining aid after tuition and fees are paid

HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL ENGAGEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- The Asian, Pacific Islander and South Asian American (APISAA) Community aims to create a space where students who identify as Asian, Pacific Islander, or South Asian can learn more about the wide and vast APISAA diaspora while celebrating cultural events.
- Titan Unidos, focuses on developing a community that embraces and celebrates diverse Latinx cultures through programming and community events. Students who live in this community will gain a deeper understanding of current issues and events affecting Latinx communities.
- Titan Transfer Gateway, focuses on creating a vibrant and engaging housing experience with programming and community events for transfer students. In collaboration with TAPP (Transfer, Adult Re-entry, Parenting and Pregnant Student Center), HRE will offer opportunities to maximize your time on campus to give an excellent Titan experience focused on academic success, personal growth and career development and exploration.

- Ujima is a collaboration between Housing and Residential Engagement and the African American Resource Center. Ujima, one of the seven Nguzo Saba Kwanzaa principles, means “to build and maintain our community together, and to make our brother’s and sister’s problems, our problems and to solve them together.” Ujima offers cultural, educational, and social events and workshops that explore the needs and experiences of the African Diaspora, connects residents with Black students, staff, and faculty, and empowers students to excel academically and socially at CSUF.
- Rainbow House is a collaboration between Housing and Residential Engagement and the Losquadro Keller LGBTQ Resource Center. As a gender-inclusive floor, Rainbow House aims to provide a supportive and safe space for students of diverse gender experiences and sexual/romantic orientations. People who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, asexual/aromantic, and allies to the LGBTQIA+ community, are encouraged to apply for residency.
- Athena House is a welcoming and safe living environment that focuses on empowering, educating, and connecting residents from diverse backgrounds and cultures about issues of gender equality and empowerment. Athena House, in partnership with the WoMen’s and Adult Reentry Center, provides resources, support, engagement opportunities, and events.

DATA FOR 2023-2024:

4,046

students reached through TitanWELL's Hut, a portable peer-to-peer program that rotates topics each week and pops up in new locations each day. The Hut provides a variety of topics such as joyful movement, mindfulness exercises, safer sexual health practices, and substance use education.

1,400

students engaged with TitanWELL's Cooking Health and Optimal Movement Promotion (CHOMP) Program. CHOMP focuses in improving exercise and nutrition through joyful movement, mindful eating, healthy foods accessibility, and cooking skills. 200 grocery bags were delivered through this program.

864

students engaged with the Substance Intervention and Prevention (SIP) team of TitanWELL and 215 completed Naloxone training. SIP uses a harm reduction approach to educate students on alcohol, tobacco, vaping, cannabis, and opioid use through outreach, sanctioned workshops, and presentations.

400

students received sexual health products through TitanWELL's Sexual Health Awareness Group (SHAG), which hosts the Readily Accessible Protection (RAP) program. Students can request condoms, lube, dental dams, and more through an online ordering system at no cost to them. They can also walk into the TitanHEALTH building and get items from grab-and-go dispensers located in both the East and West buildings.

PROGRAMS AND TRAININGS FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF:

- Naloxone training is available to students through TitanWELL and in partnership with community partners for faculty and staff.
- A national board-certified Health and Wellness Coach helps guide students through the process of assessing their health goals, set up a realistic action plan, and find the time to implement the plan. Topics include boosting physical wellness, eating healthy, and joyful movement.
- A certified sexual health educator provides a confidential and non-judgmental atmosphere where students can feel comfortable asking questions and receive unbiased information on contraceptive options, sexually transmitted infections, and pregnancy options education.
- The alcohol and other drugs health educator uses a harm reduction, non-judgmental approach to help students reach their goals. Sessions include an assessment, goal setting, follow-up, and referral to resources.

2023-2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

The Living Well with TitanWELL Podcast

Available on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, and through Titan Radio was launched in the 2023-2024 year. New episodes are released each Wednesday of the regular Fall and Spring semesters, with 23 original episodes covering various areas of health and wellbeing.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC.

Associated Students Inc. at Cal State Fullerton is a student-led auxiliary corporation that provides for student governance, programming of student activities, and funding of campus student organizations and athletics. ASI operates three campus centers: the Student Recreation Center, the nationally accredited Children's Center, and the Titan Student Union, which houses the Food Pantry, University Conference Center, and Esports Lounge. Additionally, ASI offers leadership, volunteer, and employment opportunities for student development, as well as social, cultural, and recreational programs.

SIGNATURE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Beyond the Conversation

ASI, in partnership with the Division of Student Affairs, presents a powerful series on social justice and diversity, featuring renowned guest speakers and diverse perspectives.

Recent speakers include:

Cynthia Erivo, critically acclaimed actress and singer, celebrated for her powerful performances on stage and screen, including the musical film, "Wicked."

Diane Guerrero, actress and activist, recognized for her roles in "Orange is the New Black" and her advocacy for immigrant rights.

Ke Huy Quan, actor and producer, celebrated for his remarkable performances and his inspiring journey from child star in "The Goonies," to Oscar winner in "Everything Everywhere All At Once."

Issa Rae, writer, producer, and actress, best known for her critically acclaimed series "Insecure."

Tyler James Williams, actor best known for his work on "Abbott Elementary," where he uses his platform to advocate for mental health awareness and social justice

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student governance at Cal State Fullerton plays a vital role in shared governance and empowering students to actively participate in University decision-making. ASI's Board of Directors represents the diverse interests of the student body, overseeing the corporation's operations and ensuring that student voices are integral to policy development. Through ASI participation, students develop leadership skills and gain practical governance experience, preparing them for future civic engagement.

Some of our past ASI student leaders have gone on to do great things:

- Vince Fabrizio
Chief Deputy District Attorney for Riverside County
- Jared Hill
Intergovernmental Affairs Coordinator for the City of Woodinville, Washington
- Kaysha Kenney
Marine Restoration Director at Orange County Coastkeeper Services
- Josh Mitchell
Data and Software Engineer at Apple
- Jesse Rodriguez
Legislative Assistant for the House of Representatives (NY-10)
- Dixie Samaniego
Policy Associate for the California Alliance of Child & Family Services

FOOD PANTRY

Nearly 23% of undergraduate students and 12% of graduate students face food insecurity, affecting over 4 million students nationwide, according to the 2019-20 National Postsecondary Student Aid Study.

This widespread issue underscores the urgent need for support, which is why our Food Pantry program is here to help students facing hunger and instability. Since its launch in August 2021, the ASI Food Pantry has become an essential resource for CSUF students, actively working to alleviate food insecurity. The Food Pantry provides weekly deliveries of fresh produce, dairy, canned goods, and frozen foods to ensure all students have access to nutritious meals.
